MHT-CET MBA/MMS — ENGLISH GRAMMAR MASTER GUIDE

Detailed Hinglish Edition • ELI5 style • Rules • Examples • Exam Traps • Error Spotting • Correct Sentence • Figures of Speech

Kaise use karna hai: Pehle Hinglish explanation padho, phir rule samjho, examples dekho, aur last mein khud sentence banao. Sirf definition ratne ke bajay rule ka logic samajhna hai.

CET connection: Supplied MAH-MBA/MMS-CET material mein Verbal Ability ke andar error identification aur sentence correction/rephrasing type questions diye gaye hain. ■filecite■turn1file0■L1-L8■

1. Parts of Speech

Simple Hinglish explanation: Sentence ko ek team samjho. Har word ka ek kaam hota hai. Noun kisi person/place/thing/idea ka naam hota hai. Pronoun noun ki jagah aata hai. Verb action ya state batata hai. Adjective noun ko describe karta hai. Adverb action ke baare mein extra information deta hai. Preposition relationship batata hai, conjunction words/ideas ko join karta hai aur interjection sudden feeling dikhata hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- Noun = naam wala word.
- Pronoun = noun ki jagah.
- Verb = action/state.
- Adjective = noun ki quality/description.
- Adverb = kaise, kab, kahan, kitni baar.
- Preposition = relation.
- Conjunction = joining word.
- Interjection = sudden emotion.

Examples:

1. The student solved the problem. — noun
2. She solved it. — pronoun
3. She solved it. — verb
4. It was a difficult problem. — adjective
5. She solved it quickly. — adverb

Common mistake / exam tip: Exam trick: Word ko dekhkar nahi, sentence mein uska kaam dekhkar part of speech identify karo.

2. Articles — A, An, The Simple Hinglish explanation: Articles chhote words hain, lekin grammar mein bahut important hain. A aur an generally ek non-specific singular countable noun ke saath aate hain. The tab use hota hai jab particular/specific cheez ki baat ho. A ya an choose karte waqt spelling nahi, sound dekho.

Yaad rakhna:

- Consonant sound se pehle a: a university.
- Vowel sound se pehle an: an hour.
- Specific cheez ke liye the.
- 'u' letter hone ka matlab automatically a nahi; sound matter karta hai.
- General plural nouns ke saath article zaroori nahi hota.

Examples:

1. She is a university student.
2. He waited for an hour.
3. Close the door beside you.
4. He is an honest man.
5. Books can change lives.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: a honest ■ → an honest ■; an university ■ → a university ■.

3. Determiners

Simple Hinglish explanation: Determiners noun se pehle aakar batate hain ki kaunsa noun, kitne nouns, kitni quantity ya kiski cheez hai. Basically noun ke pehle ek label ki tarah kaam karte hain.

Yaad rakhna:

- this/that = singular
- these/those = plural
- many/few = countable nouns
- much/little = uncountable nouns
- each/every = individual members
- some/any = unspecified quantity/number

Examples:

1. This question is easy.
2. There are many candidates.
3. We have little time.
4. Each student received a sheet.
5. Do you have any doubts?

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: many students ■, much time ■; much students ■, many time ■.

4. Nouns

Simple Hinglish explanation: Noun kisi person, place, object, idea, quality ya group ka naam hota hai. Kuch nouns physical hote hain jaise book aur teacher; kuch ideas hote hain jaise honesty aur success.

Yaad rakhna:

- Countable: one book, two books.
- Uncountable: information, advice, furniture.
- Collective: team, committee, family.
- Possessive: student's book, students' books.
- Plural form bhi correct honi chahiye.

Examples:

1. The teacher explained the rule.
2. Mumbai is a busy city.
3. Honesty builds trust.
4. The team celebrated.
5. I need some information.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: informations/advice(s)/furnitures ■. Standard forms: information, advice, furniture.

5. Pronouns

Simple Hinglish explanation: Pronoun noun ko baar-baar repeat karne se bachata hai. 'Riya opened Riya's book because Riya needed Riya's notes' ki jagah hum bolte hain: 'Riya opened her book because she needed her notes.'

Yaad rakhna:

- Subject: I, he, she, we, they.

- Object: me, him, her, us, them.
- Possessive: mine, yours, his, hers, ours, theirs.
- Reflexive: myself, yourself, himself, herself.
- Relative: who, whom, whose, which, that.

Examples:

1. She completed the work.
2. The teacher praised him.
3. This notebook is mine.
4. He prepared it himself.
5. The student who won smiled.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: Rahul and me went ■ → Rahul and I went ■. But 'The teacher called Rahul and me' is correct.

6. Adjectives

Simple Hinglish explanation: Adjective noun ya pronoun ko describe karta hai. Simple test: 'Kaisa?', 'Kaunsa?', 'Kitne?' poochho. Jo answer milta hai, woh often adjective hota hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- Quality: difficult, beautiful, honest.
- Number/quantity: five, several.
- Demonstrative: this, that, these, those.
- Possessive: my, your, their.
- Participial: boring, bored, broken, interested.

Examples:

1. A clear explanation.
2. A large hall.
3. Five questions.
4. An interesting lecture.
5. The broken chair.

Common mistake / exam tip: Important: I am boring = main doosron ko bore karta hoon. I am bored = mujhe boredom feel ho raha hai.

7. Degrees of Comparison

Simple Hinglish explanation: Ek cheez ko describe karna positive hai. Do cheezon ko compare karna comparative hai. Teen ya zyada mein sabse zyada/least batana superlative hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- tall → taller → tallest
- useful → more useful → most useful
- good → better → best
- bad → worse → worst
- Comparative ke saath normally than aata hai.

Examples:

1. This book is useful.
2. This book is more useful than that one.
3. This is the most useful book.
4. Today is better than yesterday.
5. That was the worst mistake.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: more better ■, most best ■, more taller ■. Double comparison mat karo.

8. Adverbs

Simple Hinglish explanation: Adverb verb, adjective ya another adverb ke baare mein extra information deta hai. Questions: How? When? Where? How often?

Yaad rakhna:

• How: quickly, carefully, clearly.

• When: today, yesterday, soon.

• Where: here, outside, everywhere.

• Frequency: always, often, rarely, never.

• Degree: very, quite, extremely.

Examples:

1. She spoke clearly.
2. We leave tomorrow.
3. Wait outside.
4. He often practises.
5. Very difficult.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: She sings beautiful ■ → She sings beautifully ■, because word 'sings' ko describe kar raha hai.

9. Verbs

Simple Hinglish explanation: Verb sentence ka engine hai. Ye batata hai ki koi action kya ho raha hai ya koi state kya hai. Sentence ka meaning complete karne ke liye verb bahut important hota hai.

Yaad rakhna:

• Main verb: study, run, know.

• Helping verb: is, are, has, do.

• Modal: can, should, must.

• Transitive: open the door.

• Intransitive: arrive, sleep.

Examples:

1. They solved the puzzle.
2. She knows the answer.
3. He is studying.
4. You should revise.
5. The train arrived.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: Modal ke baad base verb: can go ■, can goes ■; should study ■, should studied ■.

10. Tenses

Simple Hinglish explanation: Tense basically batata hai action kab hua aur kya woh ongoing tha ya complete ho chuka tha. Tenses ko timeline ke through samjho.

Yaad rakhna:

- Present simple = habit/fact.
- Present continuous = abhi chal raha hai.
- Present perfect = past action ka present se connection.
- Past simple = finished past.
- Past continuous = past mein action chal raha tha.
- Past perfect = past ke do actions mein jo pehle hua.
- Future simple = future action.
- Future continuous = future mein action ongoing hoga.

Examples:

1. She studies every day.
2. She is studying now.
3. She has finished the chapter.
4. She studied yesterday.
5. She had finished before dinner.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: yesterday jaise time markers simple past ka strong clue hain. Since/for ke saath continuing action mein perfect forms common hain.

11. Subject–Verb Agreement

Simple Hinglish explanation: Subject ka verb ke saath match hona zaroori hai. Sabse common trap ye hai ki subject aur verb ke beech extra words aa jaate hain aur student nearest noun dekhkar galat verb choose kar leta hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- Each/every/neither/either normally singular verb lete hain.
- Subject aur verb ke beech phrase ho sakta hai; us phrase se agreement change nahi hota.
- A and B usually plural verb lete hain.
- Either/or aur neither/nor mein formal usage mein nearer subject agreement affect kar sakta hai.
- News jaise words form mein plural lag sakte hain but normally singular verb lete hain.

Examples:

1. The student is ready.
2. The students are ready.
3. Each player has a jersey.
4. The box of books is heavy.
5. Riya and Aman are ready.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: The list of topics are ■. Subject 'list' hai → The list of topics is ■.

12. Prepositions

Simple Hinglish explanation: Preposition place, time, direction ya relationship batata hai. In words ko kai baar rule se zyada fixed combination ke saath yaad karna padta hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- Place: in, on, under, beside.
- Time: at 6, on Monday, in June.
- Direction: to, towards, into, through.
- Common combinations memorise karo.
- Preposition ke baad gerund aa sakta hai: interested in learning.

Examples:

1. Keys are on the table.
2. Class starts at 9.
3. She walked towards the gate.
4. He is interested in finance.
5. Success depends on practice.

Common mistake / exam tip: Important combinations: good at, interested in, capable of, responsible for, depend on.

13. Conjunctions

Simple Hinglish explanation: Conjunctions ideas ko connect karte hain. Ye addition, contrast, choice, reason, condition etc. show karte hain.

Yaad rakhna:

- and = addition
- but/yet = contrast
- or = choice
- because = reason
- although = contrast
- either...or / neither...nor / not only...but also = paired conjunctions

Examples:

1. Riya and Aman prepared.
2. He was tired, but he continued.
3. Study now or revise later.
4. She stayed home because it rained.
5. Although it was late, they continued.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: Standard exam sentence mein although...but jaise incorrect combinations se bachna hai.

14. Phrases and Clauses

Simple Hinglish explanation: Phrase words ka group hai jo complete subject-verb idea nahi deta. Clause mein subject + verb hota hai. Independent clause akela complete sentence ban sakta hai; dependent clause ko support chahiye.

Yaad rakhna:

- Noun phrase: the new student.
- Prepositional phrase: in the classroom.
- Independent clause: She smiled.
- Dependent clause: because she was happy.

• Relative clause: who won the prize.

Examples:

1. The girl in the blue dress smiled.
2. She smiled.
3. Because she was happy, she smiled.
4. The book that you gave me is useful.
5. We left when the rain stopped.

Common mistake / exam tip: Exam use: Isse sentence fragments aur clause-related errors identify karna easier hota hai.

15. Modals

Simple Hinglish explanation: Modals ability, possibility, permission, advice ya necessity batate hain. Modal ke baad normally verb ka base form aata hai.

Yaad rakhna:

• can/could = ability/possibility

• may/might = permission/possibility

• should/ought to = advice

• must/have to = necessity

• would = conditional/polite usage

Examples:

1. She can solve it.
2. You should revise.
3. You may leave.
4. Candidates must carry ID.
5. It might rain.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: He can goes ■ → He can go ■.

16. Conditionals

Simple Hinglish explanation: Conditional sentences 'if' situations batate hain. Pattern se pata chalta hai ki situation real/general hai, future possibility hai, imaginary hai ya past mein impossible ho chuki hai.

Yaad rakhna:

• Zero: If + present, present.

• First: If + present, will + base.

• Second: If + past, would + base.

• Third: If + had + V3, would have + V3.

• Basic first conditional mein if ke turant baad normally will nahi aata.

Examples:

1. If you heat ice, it melts.
2. If she studies, she will improve.
3. If I had time, I would practise.
4. If he had prepared, he would have succeeded.

5. If I were you, I would revise.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: If she will study, she will pass ■ → If she studies, she will pass ■.

17. Active and Passive Voice

Simple Hinglish explanation: Active mein subject action karta hai. Passive mein action receive karne wali cheez focus ban jaati hai. Passive mein generally be + V3 structure use hota hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- Present: is/am/are + V3
- Past: was/were + V3
- Future: will be + V3
- Modal: must/can/should be + V3
- Tense ko voice change karte waqt preserve karna hai.

Examples:

1. They solve the problem → The problem is solved.
2. She wrote the letter → The letter was written.
3. They will announce the result → It will be announced.
4. You must complete it → It must be completed.
5. Someone stole the phone → The phone was stolen.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: Voice change karte waqt tense change mat karo.

18. Direct and Indirect Speech

Simple Hinglish explanation: Direct speech mein speaker ke exact words quotes mein hote hain. Indirect speech mein hum meaning report karte hain. Pronoun, tense, time words aur question structure change ho sakte hain.

Yaad rakhna:

- Statement: said that...
- Yes/no question: asked if/whether...
- Wh-question: asked + wh-word + statement order.
- Command: told/ordered + object + to + verb.
- Request: asked + object + to + verb.

Examples:

1. “I am ready.” → She said she was ready.
2. “I finished.” → He said he had finished.
3. “Are you ready?” → He asked whether I was ready.
4. “Where do you live?” → She asked where I lived.
5. “Open the door.” → He ordered me to open it.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: Indirect question mein statement order: He asked where I lived ■, not where did I live ■.

19. Gerunds

Simple Hinglish explanation: Gerund ek -ing form hota hai jo noun ki tarah behave karta hai. Kuch verbs ke baad gerund commonly use hota hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- enjoy + ing
- avoid + ing
- finish + ing
- preposition + ing
- Gerund sentence ka subject bhi ho sakta hai.

Examples:

1. Reading improves vocabulary.
2. She enjoys reading.
3. They avoided arguing.
4. He is interested in learning.
5. Practising daily improves speed.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: enjoy to read ■ → enjoy reading ■.

20. Infinitives

Simple Hinglish explanation: Full infinitive generally 'to + base verb' hota hai. Purpose, intention aur certain verb patterns mein use hota hai. Kuch structures mein bare infinitive aata hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- Purpose: to improve.
- want/decide/hope/plan + to + verb.
- let/make + object + bare infinitive.
- Modal + bare infinitive.
- Noun ko describe karne ke liye infinitive aa sakta hai.

Examples:

1. She studied to improve.
2. He decided to practise.
3. To learn takes patience.
4. Let him go.
5. I have a book to read.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: He made me to go ■ → He made me go ■.

21. Participles

Simple Hinglish explanation: Participles verb forms hain jo verb phrase ya adjective ki tarah use ho sakte hain. Present participle generally -ing hota hai; past participle usually V3 form hota hai.

Yaad rakhna:

- running water = present participle/adjectival use
- broken glass = past participle/adjectival use
- having finished = perfect participle
- is studying = continuous verb
- was written = passive verb

Examples:

1. The shining stars looked beautiful.
2. The broken window was repaired.
3. Having finished the work, she left.
4. They are preparing.
5. The answer was written carefully.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: Dangling modifier se bachna hai: Walking to college, the rain started ■ — rain walk nahi kar raha.

22. Question Tags

Simple Hinglish explanation: Statement ke end mein chhota question add karna question tag hai. Positive statement ke saath usually negative tag aur negative statement ke saath positive tag aata hai.

Yaad rakhna:

• Same auxiliary/modal use karo.

• Pronoun subject ke according match karo.

• Simple present/past mein auxiliary na ho to do/does/did use karo.

• Imperatives aur Let's ke special patterns hote hain.

Examples:

1. She is ready, isn't she?
2. He isn't late, is he?
3. You can swim, can't you?
4. They finished, didn't they?
5. Open the window, will you?

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: She likes tea, isn't she? ■ → She likes tea, doesn't she? ■

23. Parallelism

Simple Hinglish explanation: Parallelism ka matlab hai list ya paired structure mein grammar ka same pattern maintain karna. Agar first item gerund hai, baaki bhi ideally gerund form mein hone chahiye.

Yaad rakhna:

• gerund + gerund + gerund

• to + verb + to + verb + to + verb

• noun + noun + noun

• adjective + adjective + adjective

• paired conjunctions mein balanced structure.

Examples:

1. She likes reading, writing and travelling.
2. He wants to learn, to practise and to improve.
3. She is smart, disciplined and patient.
4. The job requires skill, patience and focus.
5. It is not only difficult but also time-consuming.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trap: reading, writing and to travel ■ → reading, writing and travelling ■.

24. Commonly Confused Words

Simple Hinglish explanation: Kuch English words similar dikhte ya sunai dete hain, lekin meaning different hota hai. Inhe isolated spelling ki jagah sentence context ke saath learn karo.

Yaad rakhna:

- its = possession; it's = it is/it has
- their = possession; there = place; they're = they are
- your = possession; you're = you are
- affect = usually verb; effect = usually noun
- principal = head/main; principle = rule/belief

Examples:

1. It's raining; the company changed its policy.
2. They're waiting there with their books.
3. You're responsible for your work.
4. Sleep can affect focus; the effect was clear.
5. The principal explained the school's principle.

Common mistake / exam tip: Trick: Contraction expand karo. 'it's' ko 'it is' se replace kar sakte ho? Agar haan, it's possible. Possession ho to its.

25. ERROR SPOTTING — KAISE SOLVE KARNA HAI

ELI5: Sentence ko parts mein tod diya gaya hai. Tumhe dekhna hai ki kis part mein grammar ka rule break hua hai. Pura sentence turant rewrite mat karo. Pehle error ka rule identify karo.

Checking order: Subject + Verb → Pronoun → Article/Determiner → Tense → Preposition → Adjective/Adverb → Comparison → Parallelism → Meaning.

Example 1: Each of the students / have submitted / their assignment / on time.

Why? Part 2: have → has. 'Each' singular hai.

Example 2: The list of topics / are / on the desk / near the window.

Why? Part 2: are → is. Main subject 'list' hai.

Example 3: She / is one of the best student / in the class / this year.

Why? Part 2: student → students. One of the + plural noun.

Example 4: The teacher asked / Rahul and I / to wait / outside.

Why? Part 2: I → me. Yahan pronoun object hai.

Example 5: She completed the assignment / quick / and submitted it / before lunch.

Why? Part 2: quick → quickly. 'Completed' ko describe kar raha hai.

Example 6: He is good / in mathematics / but weak / in English.

Why? Part 2: in → at. Standard combination 'good at'.

Example 7: He has completed / the work / yesterday / without help.

Why? Part 3 ke saath tense mismatch. 'Yesterday' ke saath simple past: He completed the work yesterday.

Example 8: The students / was waiting / outside the hall / for an hour.

Why? Part 2: was → were. Students plural hai.

CET source connection: Supplied MAH-MBA/MMS-CET material mein isi pattern mein sentence ko four parts mein break karke error/no-error identify karne ko diya gaya hai. ■filecite■turn1file0■L1-L8■

FINAL REVISION METHOD

Step 1: Ek topic padho aur apni language mein explain karo. Agar explain nahi kar pa rahi ho, topic abhi clear nahi hua.

Step 2: 10–15 questions solve karo. Har wrong answer ke saamne sirf correct option nahi, rule likho.

Step 3: Error log banao: Question → Galti → Correct rule → Ek apna example.

Step 4: Topic tests ke baad mixed grammar questions karo. Phir timed Verbal Ability practice mein shift karo.

Best sequence: Articles → Nouns → Pronouns → Adjectives → Adverbs → Verbs → Tenses → Subject-Verb Agreement → Prepositions → Conjunctions → Clauses → Modals → Conditionals → Voice → Narration → Gerunds/Infinitives → Participles → Parallelism → Error Spotting → Correct Sentence → Figures of Speech.

Golden rule: Grammar mein 'yeh sentence ajeeb lag raha hai' enough nahi hai. Exam mein identify karo kaunsa rule broken hai.
